

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS CAMPAIGN 2021 - ACTION BY CHRISTIANS AGAINST TORTURE (ACAT)

GUIDELINES TO FOLLOW WHEN SENDING CARDS - You do not need to send to everyone on the list – just select one or two if you like.

- Send simple messages of goodwill and support, perhaps saying that you are thinking of him/her and encourage them not to lose hope.
- Bible verses and Christian blessings are only acceptable where the information states that religious cards can be sent.
- Non-religious cards should not include a Christmas reference (not even a Christmas tree!) – use a general card or picture postcard.
- It is known that very bright coloured cards or picture postcards often bring a lot of joy to the recipients.
- Do not advance political views. Do not mention ACAT unless there is specific note that this is ok.

Victims of torture, human rights groups and individuals under threat and persecuted Christians need our support and our prayers. Please take part in this Campaign and bring a little light into a prisoner's life. It is usually quite safe to add one's address, and does give prisoners a slightly greater link to the sender. It is unknown for there to be any comeback to the sender from an oppressive government. Cards tell the authorities that prisoners are not forgotten and can result in improved prison conditions, in a new investigation leading to a retrial and, on occasion, to freedom. A reply is occasionally received, but this should not be expected. If a reply is received, it is important that the ACAT office is informed; give the prisoner's name, prison address and country.

Postage overseas (outside Europe) for a card (up to 24cm x 16.5cm) and up to 20g costs £1.70
