SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY
28th May 2023

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend the school half term holiday draws to a close with the Dorridge Fun Run. It is back to school. I hope the various road and pavement works will now move to the side-roads to avoid the lengthy delays from the 2-, 3- and even 4-way traffic lights. Such new technology is supposed to speed us up but invariably it seems to slow us down in the process!

The return to school reminds me that the First Holy Communion Mass for the children of St George and St Teresa's will be next Saturday morning at 11am. Their Holy Communion at our Sunday Mass will be the next day. The following weekend on Sunday 18th June the Catechism class will celebrate their First Holy Communion at the 10.30am Mass. Please keep our children, parents and teachers in your prayers.

The school is very much on the agenda this weekend and in the coming weeks with two upcoming events highlighted in the notices. A fashion show on 15th June at 6.30pm and the Summer Fayre on 30th June. The PTA ask for our support. I recall modelling a hoodie many years ago. These events are always great fun.

I also have one parish social date to add to your diaries. Please do try to keep free the afternoon of Sunday 9th July for a Parish Party in the paddock behind the church. It is a lovely space and big enough for all of us. I have booked Eric Lyons to provide us with a Hog Roast catering for up to 200 people, options for vegetarians and those with food allergies. It also happens to coincide with the 30th Anniversary of my Ordination so I hope you will join me. It is the tennis-free Sunday of the Wimbledon fortnight so strawberries and cream will also be on the menu. A sign-up sheet will appear soon.

There is plenty to look forward to.

Happy Feast of the Holy Trinity to you all and every Blessing,

Fr John

Those who take communion to the sick: please collect a leaflet containing the updated text from the sacristy.

St George and St Teresa School are in fashion! Come and have a fun night out without children and raise much needed money for the school at the same time. The PTA are holding a ladies only fashion night 15th June at 6.30pm, in conjunction with Colours Fashion Company. Clothes from Marks and Spencer, Oasis, Wallis, J Crew, NEXT, Mint Velvet, Karen Millen, to name a few, will be modelled and available to purchase. The majority of items are under £20.00. Refreshments will be available to purchase and there will be a raffle. Tickets are £7.00 each, available from Andrea Collins after all Masses this and next weekend. Profits will go directly to the school. The PTA look forward to seeing you there.

Makes you smile: Burglars broke into the downstairs cloakroom earlier today but fortunately they only stole a set of broken scales. They won't get a weigh with it.
